

Heavenly Father, you have promised to hear what we ask in the Name of your Son: Accept and fulfill our petitions, we pray, not as we ask in our ignorance, nor as we deserve in your sinfulness, but as you know and love us in your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Only new prayer requests will be in the weekly bulletin.

CONTINUED PRAYER REQUESTS:

Landon Brewer, Samantha Bulger, David English, Barbara Frantz, George Goetz, Laretta Harbillas, Cindi Hunter, William Loveridge, Nolan Nachriener, Erin Roman, Linda Ross, Edward Sherman, Tracey Tomon, Rebecca Turowski, Ron Zinkham.

Please keep the church updated on your prayer request. All prayer request and updates need to be submitted to the office by Monday, June 20 for the July newsletter. All updates and request may be emailed to splcofzelie@gmail.com

Join us for Coffee and Donuts celebrating Father's Day, June 19, immediately following our 9:30 Worship Service. Everyone is invited to celebrate not only Father's Day but all the men who take just wonderful care of our church.

Every man who desires to become a true father has to look continually to the Lord, that he might learn of him how to relate to his own children.

Blessings bestowed

When author Gary Smalley asked 100 people to share how they knew they'd received their parents' blessing, they offered these memories of fatherly love:

- My father put his arm around me at church and let me lay my head on his shoulder.
- When my father faced a transfer at work, he purposely took another job so I could finish my senior year in high school.
- When I wrecked my parents' car, my father's first reaction was to hug me and let me cry instead of yelling at me.
- My father went with me to the store when I had to return a purchase I regretted.
- My father let me practice pitching to him for a long time after work.
- My father cried during my wedding because he was going to miss me being at home.
